Martinez, August 16, 1909—

Dear Mrs Hooker.

How are you all after your descent from the Glen?

I got back from the desert yesterday - found Helen well & happy, as enthusiastic as ever over the glowing sun painted mountains & plains.

I'm reading a lot of last years dictated stuff - find it very like the Glen landscapes & taluses. rough beyond description with here & there a garden spot mostly concealed -

Let me know when you think of visiting our little tawny valley so I'll be at home.

Ever faithfully
John Muir
